

Winning that Award! 29th May 2025

Advancing Healthcare Awards Northern Ireland 2025

Masterclass in how to apply and how to present your project

Presenting with Impact

The HSC Leadership Centre, in collaboration with the Department of Health is delighted to invite you to a Masterclass on:

‘Making an Application for an Advancing Healthcare Award’

What is it?

The session will include practical exercises on how to complete an application and develop a clear impact statement on your project. You will also learn how to structure and deliver an effective and impactful presentation. The session will include input from former judges on what they look for in successful applications and presentations.

If you are employed in one of the Allied Health Professions and wish to enter this year’s awards, please come along to the workshop. There is no charge to your organisation.
